Botafogo: John Textor departs Cidade da Polícia after Testifying.

After about three hours of questioning, John Textor left the Rio de Janeiro Police Station. on Wednesday, April 3, 2024, at around 7:13 p.m. local time. The businessman testimony was about the alleged fixing matches manipulation in Brazilian football, which he claims to have evidence. Textor was accompanied by three lawyers and LEFT the police station while the Botafogo game against Junior Barranquilla was still in progress. He did not speak to the press upon leaving the station and headed straight to Nilton Santos Stadium to watch the rest of the match.

The Rio de Janeiro Civil Police opened an investigation at the request of the Ministério Público do Rio de Janeiro. The investigation started after a manifesto from the Notícia de Fato was filed with the Grupo Temático Temporário (GTT Desporto/MPRJ).

Despite the ongoing investigation, Textor has not yet presented any evidence. He claims to have proof of referees discussing illegal bonuses, among other manipulations. He is also the subject of a lawsuit filed by the Public Prosecution Service.

The businessman is accused of manipulating the results of several football matches. Preliminary reports from intelligence services accused him of manipulating matches between Palmeiras and Fortaleza in 2024 and São Paulo in 2024. Palmeiras and São Paulo have announced their intention to take legal action against him.

Textor is due to testify on April 15, and he could face suspension and fines. The case is being heard by the 15th Criminal Court of the Rio de Janeiro Court. His testimony will continue on April 15.

On a related note, a report from France confirms that Artur Jorge, the new coach of Botafogo, is in Rio de Janeiro and has already begun work.
