Campos had been part of Celta Vigo's organigram since March 2024 but speculation about his departure from the Spanish club had been rife for several weeks, especially following a presidential change at the club.

Celta Vigo, in its official statement, acknowledged Campos' contributions during the 21-month collaboration and confirmed that both parties had amicably agreed upon his departure.

The club has opted to change its model, moving on from Campos' advisory role and bringing a bona fide football director who will be actively involved with club affairs daily. This approach was reportedly a point of contention for Campos, who spends the majority of his time in Paris due to his more significant role with PSG, so he was never going to take on the responsibilities demanded by Celta.

With his departure from Celta Vigo, Campos' focus now remains solely on PSG from this point on and at a pivotal point throughout the season with the winter transfer window about to open on January 1. Campos has a contract through June 2025 at PSG.

receitas de massas ne-pan podem ser um pouco hit e miss. Enquanto uma panela implica que you won't need to boil the pasta separately - or, if you prefer, less time to clean - some people think the pasta has a tendency to overcook (or undercook). Others are put off by the starch but I love this dish as a risotto. Pasta should be served with a cheese sauce and acid!

You can add frozen corn, or even peas to this pasta for example. Just pour a little of boiling water over half a cup of them while the pasta is cooking; wait for them to melt before adding when the pasta is done. If you have any dried herbs around the house you could add them to the sauce. It's a great dish to make for a party!

For a gluten-free version, you can use gluten-free pasta. Unfortunately I haven't found one that behaves the same way in the pan; for this reason it's better to cook the pasta separately and reduce the sauce by half or to cook the pasta in the sauce. If you're making a pasta salad, you can use any pasta you like. I used some mozzarella, but you could use any cheese you like.

There was a point in the history of the sport center where the saffron was more expensive than gold, and the pressures on the cost of life meant "alho-de-ter" instead of the non-negotiable in this recipe. But if you have some saffron in the house, it's a great addition to the adventures of the past. You should use it!

Use a mortar and pestle to grind the saffron with the sugar.

If I could explain the saffron to you for a recipe, besides the exotic, it's a delicate and wispy thread of cordons with a long trail of temper. I think it adds an element of base - a touch of yellow corn, but the floral note is not substituted. The material is the same as the sport center, but the deep red or orange is burned, so if you're using it, you're holding it in your hands. The shops seem very cheap, but it's burned.

Find a pan that is wide enough to fit the whole pasta.

Cook with the lid on until the pasta is al dente and the liquids have been absorbed (mainly).
