The Israelis breathed a sigh of relief on Saturday, when the Army announced that it had rescued four hostages who had been held in Gaza for eight months since the October 7 attack led by Hamas (in free translation).

The four hostages were captured during the Nova music festival, on October 7 and released in a dramatic rescue operation in the center of Gaza (first hour of Saturday).

How many hostages remain in Gaza?

In Gaza, about 120 captives remain. The Israeli army has confirmed that at least 30 of them have died (in English).

At the beginning of this month, the Israeli army informed the families of the four hostages that they were dead and that they were in the hands of Hamas. In May, the army recovered some documents about the future of the people of the region over this period!

Will Israel undertake more rescue operations?

Dozens of proposals for work have not been carried out because the hostages or the soldiers would lose their lives in the process, according to Israeli defense officials.

Israeli soldiers have managed to rescue seven living hostages in three different military operations. In one operation, a soldier accidentally shot and killed three hostages in Gaza who were being rescued.

How does Hamas respond to the operation?

In a declaration on social media, Abu Obaida, a military spokesman for the al-Qassan Brigades, accused Israel of "a complete war crime" and insinuated that the rescue operation was a "danger to the lives of the hostages and the impact".

What do the families of the hostages say?

The Family Forum, which represents the families of the poor and holds events at home to celebrate moments of joy in Tel Aviv. The reunion attracted thousands of people to the festival in the historic center (in English)

"The joy of returning home to Shlomi, Noa and Almog and Andrey with their families is a unique military operation that reminds us all that 36 weeks and 120 days have passed since we last saw them at home", said the group in a video with other countries.

What happens with the proposal for a ceasefire?

At the end of May, President Joe Biden outlined a plan for a ceasefire that would begin with an immediate and temporary ceasefire and lead to a permanent end to the war and the reconstruction of Gaza.

In the first phase, both sides would respect a ceasefire for two weeks. Israel would withdraw from the main nuclei of the population in Gaza and free several hostages and women.

Israel and Hamas would negotiate to reach a permanent ceasefire. If successful, the agreement would enter into force in the second phase with the total withdrawal of the Israeli army from the enclave (in English).

All hostages and other Palestinian prisoners would be freed. In the third phase, Hamas
